A Nut For "Elmer" to Crack.

Mr. Editor:—I notice in the last issue of the News and Citizen that E. A. Smalley is to be a candidate for Town Representative. Now I think Mr. Smalley is the right man; he is certainly a man of good judgment, enterprising, energetic, conservative and honest. But before going any further I would like to hear from Mr. Smalley, over his own signature, in the News and Citizen, how he stands on the Temperance question? It is quite evident that Mr. Smalley cannot be elected without the vote of the 245 who voted against license at the last March Meeting. ONE OF THE 245.

Death of W. I. Paul

W. I. Paul died at his home on Union street Tuesday morning at 7:15 o'clock. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for the past three years and since July 8 has been confined to his bed.

Washington Irving Paul, a son of John and Phoebe Paul, was born in Rochester, June 8, 1838. He was married in April, 1871, to Miss Kiziah Rowley of Newport, who, with one son, Linley M. Paul of Boston, survives him. In the fall of 1871, Mr. and Mrs. Paul moved to this place, where they have lived practically ever since.

The deceased was of a quiet and unassuming disposition. He was for years leader of an orchestra known as Paul's Orchestra, which furnished music in this vicinity for many years. He was a member of Mt. Vernon Lodge, F. & A. M.

The funeral will be held from his late home, Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Besides his wife and son, he is survived by a brother, Rollin Paul, and a sister, Mrs. Helen Moulton, both of this place, and a cousin, K. A. Paul of East Berkshire.

HARLAN P. MUNSON DEAD

Morrisstown Loses an Esteemed Townsman and a Worthy Business Man

Harlan P. Munson, a prominent merchant of this place, died last Sunday night at his home on Jersey Heights. Mr. Munson had for years been a sufferer from chronic heart trouble and hardening of the arteries and on March 25th last a clot of blood formed in the main artery to his right leg, shutting off the entire circulation, which necessitated the amputation of that member on the following Tuesday at the Mary Fletcher Hospital in Burlington. He seemingly had recovered from this illness, but was again stricken Friday evening last, being in a delirious condition until his death, which resulted from valvular heart disease and arterio-sclerosis.

Returning from Burlington a few weeks ago he appeared to gain in health and strength, in fact he said he never felt better. He rode out frequently and gave some attention to business. Week before last he and his wife went to Burlington with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Slayton, remaining over night. He rode up to the hospital next morning and received a cordial greeting from nurses and attendants there, so great a friendship had they formed for him. He remarked that was one of the pleasantest events of his life.

Friday he rode out to the hayfield and watched the haymakers awhile, feeling unusually well. That night he was stricken and death ensued as above.

Harlan Page Munson was born in Duxbury, November 7, 1846. With his parents, Bethuel Miller and Lucy Griffith Munson, he moved to Stowe in 1850 and ten years later to the large farm in this town known as the Munson farm, now owned and occupied by R. M. Banker. He married Miss Lizzie A. Hardy of Wilton, Me., December 24, 1878. In 1882 he moved from the farm to the village and for six years enjoyed an excellent business training as clerk in the general store of H. A. Slayton. He then bought a small stock of goods and opened a store in the building now occupied by P. St. John as a harness shop, which was then located where the H. P. Munson store now stands. He rapidly increased his business and in 1904 erected the large block in which the business is now conducted. In 1905 he erected a spacious residence on Jersey Heights.

Mr. Munson united with the Congregational church while residing in Stowe and has been a faithful member and generous supporter of the local Congregational church since coming to Morrisville, being made a deacon of that church Dec. 13, 1874. He has been often called upon to fill public positions, being selectman for several years, auditor of accounts for nine years, and has been a village trustee for many years, a position he held at the time of his death, filling all of these offices with the greatest fidelity. He was also a member of the special committee that instituted the electric light plant. He was a member of Lamolite Grange and took a deep interest in the workings of that body.

Besides his wife, the deceased is survived by a son, Levi M. Munson, and a brother, Ammi B. Munson.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late home, Rev. W. E. Baker of the Congregational church officiating, and interment was made in Pleasant View Cemetery. The honorary bearers were H. A. Slayton, G. A. Morse, A. H. Slayton, A. R. Campbell, C. H. A. Stafford and E. W. Gates. The bearers were L. J. Fleming, R. B. Woods, B. F. Udall, Roy Kidder, G. Lavarnway, Harold Magoon, Geo. Cole and E. N. Gray, all of whom are former or present employees at the Munson store.

Mr. Munson was a man whom everybody held in high regard; a Christian in every sense of the word, he lived his profession in his every day life. He was kind and courteous to all and ever generous to the poor and those in trouble.

A good man has gone out from this community, one who will be greatly missed, and who left the impress of true humanity.

"His life was gentle; and the elements So mix'd in him, that Nature might stand up And say to all the world, This was a Man!"

Out of respect to their fellow merchant, the stores and business places were closed during the funeral of H. P. Munson this afternoon.

Miss Blanche Smith, head waitress at the railroad cafe, is taking a week's vacation and spending the time in Stowe.

Denio Brothers are erecting a large building, 28x44, on their premises on Mill street, which will be used for a garage and general repair shop. They will do auto, wagon and farm machine repairing, carrying on the same in connection with their saw-mill.

G. Herbert Pape, the genial and popular Barre insurance man, and who has his eye on the Newport Collectors'hip, was in town last Saturday—just came up to make a week-end visit amid the scenes of his childhood. He was accompanied by his mother and spent Sunday with relatives at North Hyde Park.

Fred Mower, with his wife and son, was here a short time last Sunday. They are on an auto trip from Chicago and will be around these parts until September. Fred has owned a machine about two weeks and this is his first lesson in driving one. He is now visiting his sister, Mrs. H. L. Delano, at Elmore.

The fire department did quick work in extinguishing the fire on the roof of the passenger station at the depot last week Wednesday. The fire had caught from a freight engine and when the alarm was given the hose cart was hitched to Russell Page's auto and the boys reached the scene of action in a jiffy. It was but a few minutes before a stream of immense head was on the fire, and the flames extinguished. Our village water system is all right, not only for domestic purposes but for fire extinguishing.
